Dear Sirs:

I object to the showing of violent images involving our military in the Iraq theater that will subsequently inflame the Muslim world. I am referring to the NBC video clips showing a marine shooting a terrorist in a mosque. Similar images must not be shown to protect the safety of American personnel in the region. I hope my comment is only one of many you will receive when you consider renewing NBC licenses to broadcast. Thank you.